The Q1 Open Industry 4.0 Alliance members meeting

Thank you for your contributions to the last members meeting focused on topics such as "How to engage with customers?" and "How can members become early adopters?". This has been a very successful start into 2020.

Find the notes of the Q1 meeting as well as pictures of the successful participation of around 40 member companies of the Alliance.

“Wir haben unser Produkt, die GEBHARDT Galileo IoT Cloud, von Beginn an auf Offenheit ausgelegt. Im Rahmen der Open Industry 4.0 Alliance machen wir jetzt den nächsten Schritt zur Kompatibilität auf einem viel höheren Niveau. Der Nutzen für unsere Kunden: Sie können ihr automatisches Lagersystem schnell und einfach digitalisieren. Downtimes werden vermieden und Produktivität sowie Verfügbarkeit steigen.“

Thank you for your valued contribution- here is gentle reminder of the action items from our last members meeting:

- Make sure that your internal stakeholders know why your company is a member of the alliance.
- Please recruit your friends and customers- we are happy to help.
- Contribute actively in workgroups to build trust within the alliance.
- Every member with a factory/production facility shall ask their production employees & management about their pain points and find out about their needs in order to build a showcase in your own facilities.

We are looking forward to your continued collaboration in 2020!
